

NORFOLK, VIRGINIA

Interior of St. Paul's Episcopal Church built in 1739 on the site of an earlier church (1641). The present structure is the only survivor of the shelling of Norfolk (January 1, 1776) by Governor Dunmore's British fleet. A cannonball from that attack is still embedded in the wall.

Dist. by Rowe Distributing Co., Chesapeake, VA 23325

ADDRESS

A MIRRO-X ROME® CARD BY
H. S. CROCKER CO., INC.
SAN BRUNO,
CA 94066
50
PLACE STAMP
HERE